A most appropriate program of vaudeville and photoplays is being presented at the Palace theater today.
On the vaudeville bill are introduced three acts which make their initial appearance in Clarksburg. Miss Pearl Dayton, a singing comedienne, has a good voice and sings a number of catchy lively songs. Danny White is a comedian and dancer. His act includes a variety of stunts, quite entertaining. The feature act, presented by Clarise-Grogan Duo, novelty musical entertainers, is one of the best ever seen at the Palace. All new vaudeville acts will be presented tomorrow and the pictures are changed daily.

The following announcement is made by Jack Lewis concerning the opening of the new Lewis-Oliver Players Christmas day (Saturday), which makes the opening one day earlier than the time previously announced:

"It is with great pleasure that I will present what I think to be one of the best companies that I have managed since my twelve years in the managerial end of the theatrical business, and I feel sure when you see the opening Christmas day you will agree with me. I have selected a play which will appeal to all classes of lovers of the drama, "The Traveling Salesman," by the author of "The Chorus Lady," James Forbes. With this well known play I will have the pleasure to present four big acts of Vanophone $12

Here's the crowning achievement among musical instruments.
A phonograph with unique and novel features of refinement, with a volume and purity of tone unsurpassed by any other high-priced talking machines. The music profession stands amazed at its perfection of reproductive ability. The Van-ophone is beautifully enameled in black and gold. The powerful motor is sure, smooth and absolutely noiseless.
Has the exclusive automatic brake.
Yet it weighs only 12 pounds. Its range of enjoyment is greater than any other for home, club, dances, house parties and outings. Plays 10-or 12-inch disc records.
Be your own judge of the Van-ophone. Just call at our store and hear the latest records on this newest musical creation.

EMOTIONAL DRAMA SHOWING AT BIJOU

It is "The Disciple," a Triangle Play Featuring Hart and Dalton.

The feature Triangle offering at the Bijou for Wednesday and Thursday is "The Disciple," an emotional drama in five acts featuring William S. Hart and Dorothy Dalton.

Mr. Hart has a powerful and congenial role as a frontier missionary.
"The Painted Hero" with Hale Hamilton and Pauline Moran, who plays the stage struck girl, is a comedy of the Sennett order which is pronounced one of the best yet.

Geraldine Farrar, the famous grand opera prima donna and the operatic idol of two continents, is now giving a screen rendition of her "Carmen" at the Robinson Grand. It will be repeated Thursday in order to accommodate those who may wish to see this celebrated artist in Jesse L. Lasky's most notable production of "Carmen." In answer to many inquiries the Jesse L. Lasky company wishes it understood that the wine bottle broken over Geraldine Farrar's head during the fight scenes in the photodramatic version of her famous opera "Carmen" is not a "prop," but a real bottle.

Mizzi Hajos, the little Hungarian prima donna, is to appear in what is styled a musical melodrama, called "The King of Crooks." Tom Mc-Naughton has been engaged for the cast.

Everybody is going to the Odeon this week to see the "Simple Simon" company. This clever troupe has made an instantaneous hit, for it gives clever and up to date performances. It is seldom you hear as good singers as this company possesses. The chorus is especially smart and pretty. Mr.
Oliver, the comedian, is an exceedingly clever artist in his line. The company carries its own special scenery and the costumes are all new and pretty.
There will be an entire change of bill today. "Cabaret Inn" will be the bill for today and tomorrow. This is one of the funniest of the bills and should pack the house the next two nights.

Geraldine Farrar, the Noted Grand Opera Singer in the Film Version of "Carmen."

The master actor, Hobart Bosworth, appears in the wonderful Universal Broadway feature, "The White Scar." in five acts, at the Orpheum theater today. The story deals with love, jealousy and revenge. A cast of noted stars accompanies Mr. Bosworth and supports him cleverly. An extra added attraction is "The New Adventures of Terrence O'Rourke," featuring the great screen favorite, J. Warren Kerrigan.

Tomorrow, a Gold Rooster drama, "The House of Fear," presenting the beautiful star, Jeanne Eagels, will be the special offering.

Harry Ellis, one of the featured members in "Watch Your Step," and who sings the Ghost of Verdi, is an Italian with a tenor voice of grand opera caliber.

Oliver Morosco is to produce a play by Frederic and Fannie Hatton, called "Up Stairs and Down." It is a comedy, and Richard Bennett will co-work the leading role.

An accident insurance policy for $100,000 has been taken out by Sam-
